Thursday, August 16, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Creator God, you have created each of our lives to be so wonderfully intricate and vibrant. May we celebrate the beauty and unity in which you have so intentionally woven this beautiful tapestry.

Friday, August 17, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Everyone is charged to lift what is low, to unite what lies apart, to advance what is left behind.
Abraham Joshua Heschel

Saturday, August 18, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Speak out for those who cannot speak, for the rights of all the destitute.
Speak out, judge righteously, defend the rights of the poor and needy. - Proverbs 31:8-9

Sunday, August 19, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Sovereign Lord, thank you for salvation that comes by grace through faith and for the gift of grace — for accepting us as who we are, but loving us too much to let us stay that way.

Monday, August 20, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

In reflecting on the contemporary meaning of the Protestant Reformation, ethicist Margaret A. Farley challenges us to look for reforms that are needed today. She offers some questions to help.

Where is the injury and what are its causes?

Where is the apathy and what can awaken us?

Where are the old and the new springs of life and how shall they be released?

Tuesday, August 21, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God. - Ephesians 2:8

Wednesday, August 22, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Embolden us, O God. Embolden us to be the bearers of your new world order. Give us strength when we are overcome with sadness, strategies to make a positive change when we don't know what to do with our anger, and joy in doing our part to usher in your dream. Allow us to see the children and youth leading us even in these days. Amen.
