

Please join us in 365 Days of Prayer preceding the 2019 Special Session of General Conference for the United Methodist Church

Thursday, February 14, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law. - Romans 13:10

Friday, February 15, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Oh God, let us overwhelm voices of hate with words and actions of love. Let our hearts open to receive the refugee, the immigrant, the sick, the incarcerated, the hungry, and the oppressed. For as we care for them, we care for you. Amen.

Saturday, February 16, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Oh God, in the days that drag on and in the days that speed by, we are mindful that how we spend our time is how we spend our love. Let us savor each moment with those around us. May these loving relationships draw us closer to you. Amen.

Sunday, February 17, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

You can have the other words—chance, luck, coincidence, serendipity. I'll take grace. I don't know what it is exactly, but I'll take it. - Mary Oliver

Monday, February 18, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. - 2 Corinthians 3:17

Tuesday, February 19, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Oh God, we are unworthy of your grace. And yet, this mere fact makes the grace you give so freely all the sweeter. We praise you for your goodness. We marvel at your kindness. We give you thanks. Amen.

Wednesday, February 20, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Oh God, we stand against the rulers and powers that thrive on systemic injustice, that flourish when the poor are kept in poverty and when the oppressed remain pushed down. Bring your kingdom, Lord; bring your justice and your liberation. And may your will be done on earth as in heaven in this, as in all things. Amen.
