Saturday, January 5, 2019 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Holy God, this world feels heavy with grief. We mourn for lives cut short by hatred, for families seeking refuge only to be met with hostility, for those told that they are unwanted by the nation that they call home. We pray that your compassion and mercy would cover our world and the veil of ignorance would be lifted, so that we may all see each other as you do - beloved, cherished, and so loved. Amen.
