“As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s offspring, heirs according to the promise.” Ephesians 3:27-29

“Ever-patient God, you have indeed been kind to us. Your forgiveness opens the way to a new future, your goodness brightens our days, and your truth shows us the things that make for peace. Thank you that in Jesus Christ your salvation has come near to us, for he is the peace that heals our wounded world. Amen.” — A Guide to Prayer for All Who Walk with God (Upper Room Books, 2013) p. 199.

“Therefore, I say to you, don’t worry about your life, what you’ll eat or what you’ll drink, or about your body, what you’ll wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothes?” --

Monday, July 23, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

God, we long for the day when your peace will fill the heart of humanity when nation shall not rise up against nation and we shall not learn war any more.

- Peace that comes from the healing of the brokenness in this world
- Peace that comes from lying down of arms
- Peace that comes from being bolstered and emboldened by Your love and love for all of Your creation
- Peace that comes from embracing unity and uniqueness, knowing that one does not cancel out the other.
- Peace that never comes at the expense of the marginalized

We pray that You will turn our hearts to peace. Amen.
