“Be the change that you wish to see in the world.” Mahatma Gandhi

Friday, June 29, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. - James 3:17

Saturday, June 30, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Like a tree planted by living water is the person who commits to your ways, O Lord. Nourish us with your disciplining love; prune our branches for growth. Teach us also to recognize good fruit and to recoil from the bitterness of the bad. - Common Prayer

Sunday, July 1, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

“As a species we have always known we could not survive, could not flourish without each other. Whatever is to prosper, grow, or multiply will only happen with the nourishment of people who are for each other in a significant way.” ~ Richard Rohr

Monday, July 2, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. - Philippians 4:5

Tuesday, July 3, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Creator God, grant us your peace that surpasses all understanding. Lord, have mercy on us.

Wednesday, July 4, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

What so many people today fail to realize is that forgiveness is a door to peace and happiness. Forgiving is not ignoring wrongdoing, but overcoming the evil inside us and in our world with love. To forgive is not just a command of Christ but the key to reconciling all that is broken in our lives and relationships. We get rid of an enemy by getting rid of enmity. ~ Johann Christoph Arnold
