If God's peace is in our hearts, we carry it with us, and it can be given to those around us, not by our own will or virtue, but by the Holy Spirit working through us. We cannot give what we do not have, but if the Spirit blows through the dark clouds and enters our hearts, we can be used as vehicles of peace, and our own peace will be thereby deepened. The more peace we give away, the more we have. - Madeleine L'Engle

Saturday, March 24, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

I choose patience. I will overlook the inconveniences of the world. Instead of cursing the one who takes my place, I'll invite Him to do so. Rather than complain that the wait is too long, I will thank God for a moment to pray. Instead of clinching my fist at new assignments, I will face them with joy and courage. – Max Lucado

A great time is coming, but it will come through struggle and strife. When things are difficult, you must hold to the faith. Always remember that God is the victor in the end. Life is a struggle. In dying, this struggle becomes strongest. In life, people often don't notice this struggle at all, and so they don't take it seriously. - Else Von Hollander

Once Jesus was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God was coming, and he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with things that can be observed; nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There it is!' For, in fact, the kingdom of God is among you." - Luke 17:20-21
