Thursday, September 20, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Creator, we praise you for your light has been shining in the darkness since the genesis of this world. May we always walk in your light through the valleys and the darkness.

Friday, September 21, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Jesus went directly to those who were outcasts. He much preferred to associate with the “sinners” than with those who proudly set themselves apart. Jesus shared the lot of the downtrodden because God loves those rejected by society, those the world deems unworthy. God wants to help all people, and raise the dignity they possess to the light. ~ Christoph Friedrich Blumhardt

Saturday, September 22, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

O send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling. - Psalm 43:3

Sunday, September 23, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

In [the word] was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. — John 1:4-5

Monday, September 24, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Love recognizes no barriers. It jumps hurdles, leaps fences, penetrates walls to arrive at its destination full of hope. - Maya Angelou

Tuesday, September 25, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

God who sustains us, we know that your light is in the world in and around and through us. We are grateful that you walk beside us. May we continue to feel your presence and to be renewed as we continue onward. Amen.

Wednesday, September 26, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Praise the Eternal, all nations. Raise our voices, all people. For God’s unfailing love is great, and it is intended for us, and God’s faithfulness to promises knows no end. Praise the Eternal! ~ Psalm 117 (The Voice)
