Thursday, March 8, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

I choose joy. I will invite my God to be the God of circumstance. I will refuse the temptation to be cynical... the tool of the lazy thinker. I will refuse to see people as anything less than human beings, created by God. I will refuse to see any problem as anything less than an opportunity to see God. – Max Lucado

Oh, God of Dust and Rainbows,
Help us to see
That without the dust the rainbow
Would not be. - Langston Hughes

Saturday, March 10, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

The sense of futility is one of the greatest evils of the day....People say, “What can one person do? What is the sense of our small effort?” They cannot see that we can only lay one brick at a time, take one step at a time; we can be responsible only for the one action of the present moment. – Dorothy Day

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand... Proverbs 8:1-2

Monday, March 12, 2018 – Daily Prayer Prompt

Creator, praise be your name, for you are a God we can freely call out to; for you always hear our cries. Thank you for calling us to cast our burdens on you; for reminding us that we do not have to shoulder our own burdens alone.

What happens to all my prayers – those that are not answered, and those that seem to make things worse than anyone ever anticipated? Surely they are still sustaining me. Perhaps there will be unexpected answers to them, answers I may not even be aware of for years. I cannot believe they are wasted or lost. I do not know where they have gone, but I believe God holds them, hand outstretched to receive them like precious pearls. - Madeleine L'Engle
